CASTING CALL: Revolutionary Spaces casting non-union actors for a one day, two show theatrical recreation of the Boston Tea Party Meeting

In commemoration of the 253rd anniversary of the Boston Tea Party, Revolutionary Spaces is staging a theatrical recreation of A Meeting of the Body of the People, a town meeting held on December 16, 1773 that led directly to the Boston Tea Party.

Revolutionary Spaces is seeking non-union actors with strong speaking abilities. To be considered please email teaparty@revolutionaryspaces.org with a headshot or current photo and a resume. If selected to proceed, more information regarding the audition process will be provided. Auditions will be held throughout November via video call.

Performers will be cast for the following roles:

- Dr. Thomas Young (portraying 42 year old white male, with comedic timing)

This performance will be presented by Revolutionary Spaces.

- Pay for two performances and rehearsal is $400
- Rehearsal is Monday, December 14, 2026 from 6pm-10pm
- Performances will be at 11:15am and 6:15pm on Wednesday, December 16, 2026

Revolutionary Spaces prohibits discrimination and is committed to diversity. We encourage performers of all ethnicities, ages, and gender identities, as well as performers with disabilities, to submit. Please note that the ability to stand, be mobile, and navigate stairs is necessary for participation in this production, but we strive to create an inclusive environment and are open to discussing accommodations where possible.
